Chronic Dyspepsia

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by all Druggists.—Advertisement.

Result of Frequent Change by Farming

An official of the Federal Census Bureau, in discussing the report recently issued by the government dealing with the term of occupancy of farm in the United States said:

"This frequency of moving from farm to farm, or instability of occupancy, very likely forms one of the chief causes for the decline of rural prosperity, or is a hindrance to greater progress. Frequently of removal of farmers results in general shiftlessness; the roads and bridges are generally in a poor condition because the farmers, moving at frequent periods, are not particularly interested in their upkeep. Farm buildings of such farms are not usually kept in good repair, as the farmer who is about to move will leave the repairs for the next tenant to make. The same reason will apply for lack of interest by the 'unstable' farmer in the schools, churches and general welfare of the community. They move frequently; they do not remain on a farm long enough to get the best results from it, consequently they are usually in a poor financial condition."

Stop Those Early Bronchial Coughs

They hang on all winter if not checked, and pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases. Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and take it freely. Stop coughs and colds, heals raw inflamed throat, loosens the phlegm and is mildly laxative. Best for children and grown persons. No opiates. Will Marlar Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

Normal School News

Northern Arizona Normal School Lecture Course

This is the third season that the Northern Arizona Normal school is maintaining a lecture course. It has been the aim of the management to give the people of Flagstaff and the Normal school students, the best entertainment within the reach of the means at their disposal.

The first course was maintained at an expense of $400. The course offered during last season cost $500 and the course that is offered the coming season is secured at an expense of $600. There is no fund from which the management may draw for the support of this course. The income depends entirely upon the sale of tickets.

The first number consists of the Kellogg-Haines Singing Party. They will appear in Flagstaff October 26. They come highly recommended by the press, as the St. Louis Star-Chronicle, Detroit Free Press, the Lincoln, Nebraska, Journal.

The second number is a lecture by Gov. Joseph W. Folk of Missouri. Gov. Folk is so well known throughout the United States, both east and west as one of the ablest orators on the American platform at the present day, that it is necessary to speak his name only. We feel that the privilege and pleasure of hearing Governor Folk is worth the price of the season ticket. He will appear in Flagstaff either in December or January, the date is not definitely fixed.

The next number is the Collegians, a male quartet. Their performances are both vocal and instrumental. They are people who make good wherever they go and it will be a grand treat for Flagstaff when the Collegians appear, January 6.

The last number of the lecture course will be offered February 16. It is an entertainment by Halwood Robert Manlove, who is known as the man of many faces. By means of his impersonations and his character delineations, he makes folks laugh. People who have heard him, speak of him as The Prince of Charicaturists.

The season tickets are offered to the general public at $2.50. Season tickets for Normal school students, students of the public schools and of the Sister's school are $1. The single admission for the general public will be $1. The single admission for Normal school students and children of the public and parochial schools will be 50c.

The trustees of the public schools of Flagstaff have kindly offered the Emerson hall for this season's lecture course. This makes it possible to arrange for reserved seats, a thing that has not been possible heretofore. The holders of tickets may have their seats reserved at the Marlar drug store at such dates as will be announced from time to time during the course.

The management trusts that the people of Flagstaff will support the Normal School Lecture Course with a very liberal patronage. It is no idle boast that this is the best course that has ever been offered in this city.

Declamatory Contest

The annual Declamatory Contest will be held at the Normal school on the evening of Friday, October 16. A small admission fee of ten cents will be charged.

Why Experiment With a Drastic Law

Admitted to be a partial failure in Kansas; yet still more radical, and offering no exceptions; it is proposed to force on Arizona a PROHIBITION LAW claimed to be the most drastic in the world. Untried, untested, no more or no less than a mere experiment.

With a small and scattered population; right in the crucial stage of her career; and younger and smaller than any other state; Arizona cannot afford to cast off what is indorsed as the most modern and best Local Option Law in the world, and thrust upon itself a law still worse—and proven to be only a partial success.

Is it not an established fact that the law can be best enforced, that economic losses, and political and moral corruption can be best adverted where the majority rule; where each city or community has the right to decide the purely local question, whether liquor shall be sold within its limits or not? Can you afford to experiment? Can Arizona afford to experiment under such conditions? For further information write
